STUDENT ENROLMENT CONTRACT FOR USE AT REGISTERED PRIVATE CAREER TRAINING INSTITUTIONS IN THE PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

All private institutions that provide career training programs to students of more than 40 hours/week and over $1000/tuition must be registered under the Private Career Training Institutions Act. The Private Career Training Institutions Agency (PCTIA) is responsible for establishing basic education standards and providing consumer protection for students enrolled with a registered career training institution, and for standards of quality for accredited career training institutions. A list of registered / accredited institutions can be found on PCTIA's website.

PCTIA also manages the Student Training Completion Fund which provides tuition refund protection to students in the event a registered institution ceases to operate, or if a student is found to have been misled by an institution.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION
(APPENDIX A)

Before you sign an enrolment contract, there is important information you need to know:

Before you begin studies at a registered institution you must sign a student enrolment contract. The institution is required to provide you with a signed copy of your enrolment contract and to maintain a copy in your student file. Under the Personal Information Protection Act, you are entitled to access your student file. Further information about storage and access to your student file is contained in the institution's Privacy Policy.

The institution must provide you with written copies of the following information:

- | | | |
|--|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Dispute resolution policy | <input type="checkbox"/> Grade Appeal Policy | <input type="checkbox"/> Admission policy |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Privacy Policy | <input type="checkbox"/> Attendance policy | <input type="checkbox"/> Tuition Refund Policy |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Withdrawal / dismissal policy | <input type="checkbox"/> Program or course outline | <input type="checkbox"/> Work Experience(Practicum) Policy |

Ensure you have understood this information before you sign an enrolment contract. This information can be found in the Policy Manual/Student Handbook on our website at <http://www.nwcav.com/application.php>.

The signed contract must be kept in the student's file at the institution. Upon completion of the program of study or after withdrawal or dismissal from the program, an electronic copy of this contract along with the student transcript, certificate or diploma, must be stored off-site for a period of 55 years.

Prohibitions:

- o The institution is prohibited from guaranteeing a student or prospective student employment, income, or eligibility for a work permit;
- o Program admission requirements for your program of study cannot be waived;

Your enrolment contract must include the institution's tuition and fee refund policy which sets out the amount of tuition that will be retained in the event you withdraw or are dismissed from the program. The institution's tuition and fee refund policy must comply with the minimum requirements established by PCTIA's Bylaws, as set out below:

TUITION REFUND POLICY

The following refund policy applies to the terms of this enrolment contract:

REFUNDS IN CASES OF WITHDRAWAL OR DISMISSAL

1. Refund Policy
 - a) all institutions must have a refund policy which is described, in full, on the student enrolment contract. The minimum policies acceptable to the Agency appear below. Institutions are free to adopt a policy that is more generous to the student.
2. Written Notice
 - a) A written notice of withdrawal or dismissal must be provided:
 - i. By a student to the institution when the student withdraws, or
 - ii. By the institution to the student where the institution dismisses a student.
3. Refund Entitlement
 - a) Refund entitlement is calculated on the total fees due under the contract, less the applicable non-refundable application or registration fee. Where total fees have not yet been collected, the institution is not responsible for refunding more than has been collected to date and a student may be required to make up for monies due under the contract.
4. Refund policy for students:
 - a) Refunds before the program of study begins:
 - i) If written notice of withdrawal is received by the institution less than 7 calendar days after the contract is made, and before the commencement of the period of instruction specified in the contract, the institution may retain the lesser of 10% of the total tuition and fees due under the contract or $250.00.
 - ii) Subject to subsection 24.11) a) i), if written notice of withdrawal is received by the institution 30 calendar days or more before the commencement of the period of instruction specified in the contract, the institution may retain the lesser of 10% of the total tuition and fees due under the contract, or $750.00.
 - iii) Subject to subsection 24.11)a) i), if written notice of withdrawal is received by the institution less than 30 calendar days before the commencement of the period of instruction specified in the contract, the institution may retain the lesser of 20% of the total tuition and fees due under the contract, or $1,000.00.
 - b) Refunds after the program of study starts:
 - i) If written notice of withdrawal is received by the institution or a student is dismissed before 10% of the period of instruction specified in the contract has elapsed, the institution may retain 30% of the tuition and fees due under the contract.
 - ii) If written notice of withdrawal is received by the institution, or a student is dismissed, after 10% and before 30% of the period of instruction specified in the contract has elapsed, the institution may retain 50% of the tuition and fees due under the contract.
 - iii) If a student withdraws or is dismissed after 30% of the period of instruction specified in the contract has elapsed, no refund is required.

5. Other Refund Policy Requirements

- a) If an international student's Study Permit application has not been completed by the start date identified in the institution's Letter of Acceptance and the student so notifies the institution, at the request of the student the institution may issue a second Letter of Acceptance for a later start date. In such a circumstance, the institution may charge the student an additional $200 administrative fee and retain the balance of the prepaid tuition fees pending the outcome of the Study Permit application. Should a student fail to so advise the institution, the institution's refund policy for students will apply.
- b) An institution may retain the lesser of 10% of the total fees due under the contract or $400.00 for international students who are denied Study Permit authorization from Citizenship and Immigration Canada. Students denied a Study Permit must provide the institution with a copy of the denial letter prior to the program start date as set out in the institution's most recently issued Letter of Acceptance. Should a student fail to so advise the institution, or choose to withdraw for other reasons, the refund policy set out Policy 4 will apply. Refunds owing to students must be paid within 30 calendar days of the institutions receiving a copy of the Study Permit denial letter.
- c) Refunds owing to students must be paid within thirty (30) calendar days of the institution receiving written notification of withdrawal and all required supporting documentation, or within thirty (30) calendar days of an institution's written notice of dismissal.

AUTHORIZATION FOR INDIRECT COLLECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION
(APPENDIX B)

In order to comply with its mandate of establishing quality standards and providing consumer protection, the Private Career Training Institutions Agency (PCTIA) may collect and use personal information about students enrolled in private career training institutions in accordance with section 26(c) of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

I _____ (Student Name), hereby authorize "Northwest Culinary Academy of Vancouver" (NWCAV) to provide my name, contact information, personal identification information, details about my program of study, and amount of fees and tuition paid, directly to PCTIA for the purpose of:

- Advising me of my rights under the Private Career Training Institutions Act, Regulation or PCTIA Bylaws,
- Administering the Student Training Completion Fund and / or
- Establishing and monitoring PCTIA standards for career training institutions.

The personal information on this form consisting of the student name, date of birth, gender, and postal code of the last known permanent address may be used to verify or assign a British Columbia Personal Education Number (PEN) to students. The main use of the PEN is to measure participation of the population in the post-secondary sector and for program research or evaluation.

Other uses of personal information may include purposes of identification, statistical reporting, investigating student complaints, determining tuition refund entitlements, measuring program performance, or other regulatory requirements. For research purposes, any information disclosed will be in a non-identifiable form.

I understand that I may withdraw my consent to the release of personal information by informing the institution in writing.

Upon completion of the program of study or other termination from the program, my academic record consisting of my transcript and diploma if issued, and this contract, will be stored for the purpose of maintaining an academic record archive in accordance with the PCTIA Bylaws.
